Recommendations when sending your sword:

Insure or register the parcel as Crisp & Sons cannot take responsibility for the sword's non-arrival. We recommend you send the sword by using a recorded delivery service.

Protect the tip of the blade if the sword is not in a scabbard. Ensure that the parcel is packaged carefully to reduce the risk of damage, when in transit.

If sending your sword from outside the UK, mark the sword clearly as being "returned for repair", which will assist in avoiding delays and costs associated with Customs and Excise.
